

AN ITINERARY

Introduction | Pages 4-5

LePuy Overview - Day One | Pages 6-13

- Morning Prayer – Set intentions for the day and week.
- Walk around LePuy - Point out landmarks that offer guideposts for ease in navigating LePuy-en-Velay.
- Visit Cathédrale of Notre Dame and its significant elements.
- Walk to Notre Dame de France statue on the Puy near the Cathédrale. See an overview of Le Puy-en-Velay.
- Evening prayer and reflection

El Camino de Santiago - Day Two | Pages 14-15

- Morning Prayer
- Early morning Mass at Notre Dame Cathédrale, a traditional starting point of the Way of St. James (El Camino de Santiago).
- Walk some and learn more about the El Camino.
- Evening prayer and reflection

CSJ Foundations - Day Three | Pages 16-21

- Morning Prayer
- Visit the Sisters of St. Joseph Living History Centre and 17th century hearth.
- Visit Martine's lace shop (coming downhill from Cathédrale; it is the last one on the right, next door to a restaurant with 'great lentil soup!'. Green lentils are agricultural hallmark of this area.)
- Visit Eglise du College (St. George's College Church), a Baroque-style church built by the Jesuits, where Father Jean-Pierre Médaille, SJ stayed when in Le Puy and preached. It is the starting point for a pilgrimage following the steps of Saint Jean Francois Regis, SJ, Patron Saint of lacemakers, from LePuy to Lalouece. While in LePuy, Jean Francois took great interest in lacemakers and used the Jesuit missionaries' network to promote lace making throughout the world.

- Visit the Tree of the Martyrs which marks the site of the guillotine during the French Revolution. The tree is located in a village square.
- Evening prayer and reflection

Chapelle Saint-Michel d'Aiguilhe - Day Four | Page 22

- Morning Prayer
- Visit Rocher Chapelle Saint-Michel d'Aiguilhe
- Visit any sites that may have been missed
- Evening prayer and reflection

Lyon and Beyond - Day Five | Pages 23-27

- Visit Mother St. John Fontbonne's family home in Bas-en-Basset
- Arrive in Lyon
- Visit the Congregation of Lyon Motherhouse and Museum
- Visit Mother St. John Fontbonne's gravesite.
- Evening prayer and reflection

CSJ Spiritual Resources | Pages 28-33

Songs | Pages 34-35

Acknowledgments | Page 36

Pilgrimage: In the Footsteps of our Founders

CSJ Institute, Mount Saint Mary's University, Los Angeles, CA

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vik1FHPTULg>